Recommended levels of care were 11 to short-term rehab, 5 to detox, 2 to outpatient and one each to Early Intervention, IOP, long-term rehab, no treatment, residential treatment.

Referral Sources – 9 came from the courts, 5 from child welfare, 5 from other and 4 voluntarily seeking treatment.

WITS system – Beginning to be trained in WITS plan. Screening and Assessments will be standardized and electronic. Kira's has begun to do the webinars.

ASAM training will take place in May or June still waiting on definitive dates.

Prevention

All of Human Services will have tables at Kid Fest on April 28th. Still in the planning phase, but anticipate being able to have the Drug Take Back event at Kid Fest.

Communities That Care (CTC)

CTC is hosting an event in April. A CTC movie night Also a calendar with other events for youth within Greene County – March 20th Easter Egg Hunt, May Fiesta Night.

Opioid Strategies

Continues to be the three Drug Take Back locations, State Police Barracks, Sheriff's Department, and Cumberland Police Department.

Governor Wolf rolled out last week a data dashboard for opioids on his page includes information such as how many children were born with NAS on Medicaid. Has other useful stats on it as well.

Warm Hand Off – continue to search for a person to fill the Navigator position. This presents challenges to fully implementing the WHO policy.

Naloxone Training – Plan to have a Naloxone Training April 17th for professionals that are considered first responders in the Fort Jackson Building from 1-2pm. Continuing to work out the details of the training.

Recovery Oriented System of Care (ROSC)

Oxford Houses

The Cumberland House for Men in Waynesburg is full. At the Bird Sisters House for Women in Waynesburg, there are five openings; two women to possibly come in April; the house can accommodate up to 9 women at a time. The Oxford House in Nemaquin is currently empty as transportation out of Nemaquin for work and services is a challenge.

Certified Recovery Specialist

One has been hired and is currently being training. She is also a Mental Health Peer Specialist. There continues to be an options of incorporating a second part-time person.

Gambling Needs Assessment

Discussion groups planned for the 27th

Collaboration with the Jail to have a discussion group on the 28th.

A Public Forum on March 28th from 5-7 pm. Person's in recovery and a panel available to answer questions.

Gambling Survey

Kira asked committee members to fill out a gambling survey.
